

Academic Support

Courtney Schmitz
Director, Academic Services center for academic success

& enrichment

Six Departments Focused on Academic Support, Student Success, and Enrichment Opportunities

- Academic Services
- Military Education & Resource Center (MERC)
- Office of Community Engaged Learning (CEL)
- Scholars Academy
- Study Abroad
- The Writing Center: Graduate Writing Services

Academic Services Overview

- Tutorial Support
 - Content-specific tutoring in nearly 60 courses - general education and major courses
 - Peer-to-Peer
 - By Appointment
 - BrainFuse – Online Academic Support

Academic Services Overview

- The Writing Center
 - Face-to-Face or Online peer tutoring for students' course writing
 - Idea generation, citations, improving research skills

Academic Services Overview

- Academic Advising for Undecided Students
 - Students can explore more than 80 majors available
 - Allow students to take classes in some majors without declaring
 - Advisors meet with students each semester for course planning and career exploration
 - Work with students in transition

Academic Services Overview

- Support for Students with Disabilities
 - Students who have learning accommodations
 - 504 or IEP
 - Testing with extended time, distraction-free testing location
 - Students who have special physical needs
 - Students who require temporary accommodations
 - Students who have suffered an injury
 - Students who have been concussed

Academic Services Overview

- Student-Athlete Academic Support
 - Ensure full-time status (12 credit hours)
 - Certify all NCAA progress toward degree requirements
 - Communicate with students and coaches
 - Academic progress checks throughout the semester

Academic Services Overview

- General Academic Support
 - Midterm grade reports
 - Academic intervention measures
 - Academic probation and recovery

Academic Advice at Lewis

- Seek help when needed
- Recognize Academic Services as a “go to” place to ask questions
- Encourage your students to talk with faculty if they are having difficulty
- Remind your student to check in with advisor at least once each semester

Contact Us

Academic Services

Third Floor of Learning Resource Center (LRC)

Office Hours:

Monday – Friday 8:30am-5:00pm and by appointment

Phone: (815) 836-5593

E-mail: AcademicServices@lewisu.edu