

Distinguished Lasallian Educator

The Distinguished Lasallian Educator Award honors an educator (not limited to a classroom teacher) who exemplifies the ideals of Saint John Baptist de La Salle. This award is one of Lewis University's most prestigious faculty and staff awards.

Nomination Criteria

The recipient must:

- be an educator (faculty or staff member) who has served at Lewis University for at least five years
- work with the educational community to foster Gospel values in the lives of faculty, staff and students
- see Lewis University as a place of educational excellence which shares in the teaching mission of the Catholic Church and the traditions of the De La Salle Christian Brothers.

Nominee's Name:

Nominee's Department:

Please explain why the nominee is deserving of this award. What characteristics or qualities make the nominee such an outstanding Lasallian educator? Please list examples and be very specific.

Share additional information that you believe the selection committee should be aware of:

Nominator's Name:

Nominator's Department: