

De La Salle Medallion for Excellence in Justice Advocacy

The De La Salle Medallion for Excellence in Justice Advocacy is awarded to a student who demonstrates an outstanding commitment to the promotion of justice and seeks to engage others in working toward addressing injustices.

An honoree will be a student who:

- Promotes justice through participation and leadership in programs/activities
- Spreads awareness of injustice and ways to address it
- Invites others beyond their own circles into the work for justice
- Known by others to promote the work for justice

Nominee's Name:

Nominee's Email:

Please explain why you have chosen to nominate this student.

Explain why you have chosen to nominate this student. How does this student demonstrate the criteria listed above? Please be as specific as possible and provide examples.

For how long has the nominated student been involved in these efforts?

How have Lewis University and the broader community benefitted from the nominated student's work?

Nominator's Name:

Nominator's Title and Department: