

De La Salle Medallion for Excellence in Service and Community Engagement

The De La Salle Medallion for Excellence in Service and Community Engagement is awarded to a Lewis University student who works with community organizations to meet needs and invites others to be more involved with their community.

An honoree will be a student who:

- Regularly participates and serves as a leader in curricular and/or co-curricular community-based experiences
- Spreads awareness about opportunities for service and community engagement through University offices, programs, and initiatives as well as off-campus organizations
- Personally invites others to engage in community based experiences
- Is recognized on campus and in the community for their commitment to serving others.

Nominee's Name:

Nominee's Email:

Please explain why you have chosen to nominate this student.

Explain why you have chosen to nominate this student. How does this student demonstrate the criteria listed above? Please be as specific as possible and provide examples.

How long has the nominated student been involved in these efforts?

How has Lewis University and the broader community benefitted from the nominated student's work?

Nominator's Name:

Nominator's Title and Department: