

De La Salle Medallion for Excellence in Intentional Faith

The De La Salle Medallion for Excellence in Intentional Faith is awarded to a Lewis University student who demonstrates excellence in promoting intentional personal faith among her/his peers through involvements, leadership opportunities, and conversations.

An honoree will be a student who:

- Participates regularly in faith development activities (prayer, bible studies, faith sharing groups) and leads them for others.
- Shares his/her faith in inviting, enthusiastic, and accessible ways.
- Invites others beyond their own circles of influence into experiences of faith
- Is recognized as someone with a personal, intentional faith commitment.

Nominee's Name:

Nominee's Email:

Please explain why you have chosen to nominate this student.

How does the student demonstrate the above criteria? Give specific examples.

For how long has the student been involved in these efforts?

How has Lewis benefitted from this student's work?

Nominator's Name:

Nominator's Title and Department: