2. This form is due before beginning classes; if submitted late, the discount begins the next term. Discounts will not be applied to prior terms regardless of employment dates.
3. Tuition is deferred for 6 weeks after the end of each class. Accounts not paid in full by the due date will be assessed a non-payment penalty fee and be placed on hold. The hold will prevent future registration and transcript release.

This is the official Lewis University billing method and will be used for employer reimbursement submission. Specialized bills will not be generated for employer reimbursement purposes.
5. In my final term of classes, any outstanding balance must be cleared prior to the release of transcripts and diploma.
6. If I leave the university with an unpaid balance, I will reimburse the fees of any collection agency, which may be based on a percentage at a maximum of 33% of the debt, and all costs and expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, incurred in such collection efforts.
7. I will consult the current Course Schedule for tuition rates, fees, and additional billing policies.
